

Kumbekumbe Arts Trust

ABOUT US

Background

'Kumbekumbe' is a Kiswahili name derived from the flying termites. It translates to 'Ishwa' in Shona and the flying termites are popular for their teamwork, creativity and innovation in building the churu (termite mound). We draw our strength and values from the Ishwa hence we are Kumbekumbe Arts Trust.

Vision

We envision an environment where people of all ages young and old have an opportunity to experience, participate in and grow through creative practices

Mission

Our mission is to place arts, culture and a creative practice at the heart of our work

OUR MOTTO

HEARTBEAT OF COMMUNITIES

Creative Advocacy

Our art is our voice. We design concepts that relay community issues.

Creative Practices

Nurture creative habits, passion and skills.

WHO ARE WE

We are a community based organisation that uses different forms of art to engage, facilitate and advocate towards community issues.

WE ARE INSPIRED BY OUR VISION, DRIVEN BY OUR MISSION AND UNDERPINNED BY OUR VALUES
